

ORDER FOR STRIKE OF BITUMINOUS MINERS SATURDAY STANDS

MINERS' EXECUTIVES DECIDE NOT TO RESCIND CALL, AFTER CONFERENCE AT INDIANAPOLIS

President Wilson's Stand Against a Tieup of Mines on Verge of Winter Has No Defenders at the Meeting Which is Most Weighty Held in Connection With Bituminous Workers' Demands for Shorter Day and More Pay.

THEY KNOW SENTIMENT IS AGAINST THEM

By Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 29.—The strike of the United Mine Workers, effective Friday midnight, stands.

After two hours' discussion, the conference here of officials of the big union, announced they had no idea of modifying the call for a cessation of work. President Wilson's pronouncement on the threatened industrial war had no defender in the conference, it was stated.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 29.—Executives of the United Mine Workers of America met here today to take final action on President Wilson's appeal that the nation-wide strike of bituminous coal miners ordered for November 1 be called off.

With but 60 hours left before the time for stoppage of production of the nation's fuel supply, the meeting assumes the character of the most weighty one which has yet been held in connection with the miners' demands for a six-hour day, a five-day week and 60 per cent increase in wages. Out of it will come the final word of the miners on the situation. Representatives of coal miners in all parts of the country were here.

The delegates entered the conference this morning sober-faced and with a full realization of the seriousness of their undertaking. Not a man among them but was aware that the national and state governments were lined solidly against them and that the governments are backed by wide-spread public opinion that the miners are in the wrong. On every hand they have heard with expressions of the grave consequences attaching to the threatened strike on the verge of winter.

GARFIELD EXPECTS STRIKE

SETTLEMENT WILL BE MADE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Federal Fuel Administrator Harry A. Garfield discussed the threatened strike of bituminous coal miners today with Secretary Tumulty at the White House. He was summoned here from Williams college of which he is president. Dr. Garfield, who still has authority to function as fuel administrator, said he was in close touch with the strike situation, and expressed confidence that a settlement would be reached without a walkout of the miners.

The fuel administrator would not discuss his conference with Tumulty but his visit to the White House revived suggestions that the fuel administration might again be called to exercise the war-time control over fuel as provided for the Lever act. While actively serving as administrator, Dr. Garfield was instrumental in bringing about the so-called Washington wage agreement which expires April 1, 1920, and which it has been contended would be violated if the miners walk out.

466 MINES IN W. VA.

MAY BE CLOSED BY STRIKE.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Oct. 29.—Four hundred and sixty-six mines employing about 40,000 miners will be closed cutting the total coal production in West Virginia by about 3,400,000 tons per month, if the nation-wide strike of miners goes into effect November 1.

This information was secured from a representative of the operators. The miners' officials claim that there are 54,000 union miners in the state who would answer the strike call.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 29.—If the strike of soft coal miners becomes effective Saturday, it will affect more than 10,000 miners in Ohio, will close down more than 1,200 mines in 21 Ohio counties and will stop an average daily output of nearly 250,000 tons of coal, according to officials of the United Mine Workers of Ohio.

DECLARES OPERATORS CAN

AVOID THE MINERS' STRIKE.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 29.—That there is still some slight hope of averting the proposed coal miners' strike which is scheduled to take place Saturday, was made manifest among some of the officers and leaders of United Mine Workers of the Pittsburgh district last night just before the departure of a delegation for Indianapolis. While there is no apparent reason, the miners own feel that it is up to the operators to make the first move and they expect them to make it.

"Sure, we will be glad to take up negotiations with the operators if they desire," said Philip Murray, president of the Pittsburgh district, when asked if the way was open to resume negotiations. "While I am not authorized to speak for the international officers, I can say that the miners will try to any place selected there to negotiate, provided there are indications that the employers mean business. As matters now stand, a just and sensible move by the operators could pave the way for settlement."

COME WEST, HE SAYS.

Comrade Prothero Fears Winds Are Too Strong for Veterans Here.

Writing to W. P. Clark and enclosing a clipping from a California paper describing the blowing of a collar and tie from a man's neck by a savage gust of wind near Connellsville last July, T. Prothero of Oakland, Cal., says:

"You boys of the 142 P. V. Regiment had better pull up your skirts and come west to this good country where such foolishness and climatic freaks as mentioned above are not tolerated. Come."

Comrade Prothero marks his letter, "Special for The Courier," and here it is.

ENFORCEMENT OF
PROHIBITION LAW
STARTS AT ONCE

Task of Making Absolute Bans on Liquor Manufacture and Sale Begun.

UP TO REVENUE AGENTS

Department of Justice Will Bring Prosecutions Upon Evidence Secured by Federal Agents; Situation Holds Gloom for Wet Forces.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Armed with the drastic provisions of the Prohibition enforcement act which became effective as to wartime prohibition by passage by the Senate of the measure over the President's veto yesterday, agents of the Bureau of Internal Revenue today took up the task of making absolute the bans on the manufacture and sale of liquor.

The internal revenue bureau will be backed up by the Department of Justice which will conduct the prosecution from evidence obtained by the bureau's agents.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The liquor enforcement bill became a law yesterday despite the President's veto when the Senate, following the House's example and repudiated the measure. The situation thus created, following White House announcement that war-time prohibition will be proclaimed at an end when the Senate ratifies the price treaty, is uncertain.

The result of the President's veto was to put forward instead of delaying the bill's operation. If the President hadn't touched the measure but let it become a law by expiration of the statutory limit, it would have been effective at midnight, but the days in Congress, slung and angered by the President's efforts to stave off the bill, cracked the whip, overcame hours of jockeying for delay in the Senate and finally forced a vote at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The minute Vice President Marshall announced the result and that a two-thirds vote had been cast for the bill over the veto, the measure became effective. Word was telegraphed at once to the Treasury Department at once and telegrams were dispatched immediately to government agents throughout the country.

TWO MORE AMERICAN

LEGION POSTS WILL

BE ORGANIZED SOON

Colored Service Men Will Form One of Their Own and Star Junction Another.

Two new posts of The American Legion will likely be organized in this section of the county in the near future, one at Star Junction and the other in Connellsville by colored service men. Officers and members of Milton L. Bishop Post of this city will assist the baby posts to get started on their careers.

Star Junction service men are enthusiastic over the proposition and they figure on a large membership from that section where hundreds of men served with distinction in the Army, Navy and Marines.

While the Legion draws no lines of color, race or creed, the colored soldiers of the city will follow the plan of their comrades in other communities by forming a post of their own. They also are enthusiastic and once started will begin a membership drive with the idea of enrolling every eligible member.

Thomas W. Scott and Max C. Florio, members of Milton L. Bishop post are already planning for their trip to Minneapolis to attend the national convention, November 11 and 12. They are state delegates, and, incidentally, Bishop Post is the only one in the state which will have two members among the authorized Pennsylvania delegation. This is a unique distinction.

The local men will join the Pennsylvania delegation at Chicago. A caucus to determine a plan of action will be held on the train. The Connellsville men have been assured that they can have any post they desire in the state representation and it is expected that they play an active part on the events that go to make up the first national convention of the Legion.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The United States Steel Corporation at its quarterly meeting Tuesday failed to declare an extra dividend on its common stock. The last extra dividend, one per cent, was declared nine months ago. The regular dividends of 1 1/2 per cent on common and 1 1/2 per cent on preferred stocks were authorized.

The effect of the strike, which began in the last fortnight of the quarter, is seen in the monthly returns, earnings of $12,800,000 for September being less by $2,270,502 than those of August. Tuesday's meeting of the executive committee and board of directors was short, with a small attendance. Chairman Gary declined to discuss any phase of the industrial situation.

Five Men Arrested on Suspicion of Plotting to Destroy the Central Police Station Accused of Having Planned Extensive Outrages Throughout the Country; Believed to be Members of Anarchistic Circle Working in 100 Cities.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 29.—Discovery of a radical plot to spread terror throughout the nation by another series of bomb explosions next Spring was announced by the police here today, following the arrest last night of five men and one woman suspected of having planned the destruction of the central police station.

Believing they were members of an anarchistic circle that has been working in more than 100 cities, the police questioned the group all night in an effort to learn details of their plans or the extent of their organization.

One of the men is believed by the police to have been active in bombing Mayor Harry L. Davis' home June 2 last.

With the prisoners the police captured a large quantity of high explosives, one complete bomb, several incomplete bombs, a number of automatic pistols and a supply of ammunition and much anarchistic literature.

B. & O. MAN HURT

Slight Accident Here Yesterday Only Third Among 5,000 in 11 Days.

Another minor accident in Connellsville railroad territory, the third among some 5,000 employees, since the safety drive began 11 days ago, was reported last evening to division headquarters of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The victim of the injury, C. K. Gargola, is employed in the ash pit in the local yards. A thumb was lacerated. This was the first accident on the Baltimore & Ohio. The other two reported were on the Western Maryland which is under the direction during federal control of the local division offices of the Baltimore & Ohio.

Officials are hoping the good record will be maintained to the close of the campaign October 31 and that the safety lessons that are now being inculcated will be remembered in all the years to come. No accidents have been reported on the Pennsylvania or Pittsburgh & Lake Erie.

S. J. Harry Company Starts Work on Last of Eight Shafts for Gilboa Dam.

Other Work, However, Will Keep the Company Engaged in That Section for Several Years; S. J. Harry, Head of the Firm, Here on Business Trip.

The S. J. Harry company of this city is on the home stretch of a shaft sinking contract on the Gilboa dam project of the New York water supply system in the Catskill mountains that will approach the $2,000,000 figure. According to S. J. Harry, head of the concern which maintains its Connellsville offices in the Title & Trust building, work has been started on the final of eight huge shafts sunk to the level of a tunnel 18 miles long connecting the Schoharie storage reservoir five miles long, with Esopus creek which empties into the great Ashokan reservoir of the city water system. Mr. Harry was here for a short business trip, returning last night from Shandaken, N. Y., where his headquarters are. The present contract will last until next March, but other work is expected to keep the contracting firm engaged in that region, perhaps for several years.

The shafts were sunk to make it possible to tunnel through the rock under the mountains. All have a diameter of 14 feet. The deepest was 651 feet. The others ranged down to 178 feet, which is the depth to which the final one, work on which has just been started, will be sunk. The initial operations by the Harry company were begun a year ago last May. During the stupendous undertaking the company has been exceedingly fortunate in the matter of accidents.

There has been but one of serious nature. A man was killed as he was being hoisted from a shaft. Outside of this there was not an accident that resulted even in the breaking of a bone. As high as 500 men were on the payroll at a time. At present the force is down to 100.

By the construction of the tunnel and the Schoharie reservoir engineers will halt the flow of a stream headed northward and turn it back to the south that Gotham may have an adequate water supply. The reservoir, which is well under way, will be five miles long, with a shore line of 12 miles and surface area of 1,370 acres. It will contain 22 billion gallons of water and have a depth of 150 feet. The dam will cost $6,819,910 and the entire work $22,000,000. The town of Gilboa, on the site of the lake, will be removed. With the village will go seven cemeteries from which 1,330 bodies will be removed, also 14 miles of highway and all farms in that zone.

The S. J. Harry company has started a new contract, one for the sinking of a 200 foot shaft at Gouverneur, N. Y., near Lake Erie, to tap a new deposit for the Uniform Fibrous Talk company. This project is similar to the sinking of a mine shaft in the Connellsville region.

out the country directing them to proceed at once with enforcement of the stringent provisions of the new booze code.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Roper at once issued a statement appealing to local police and prosecuting authorities to assist the government in enforcing the measure in a spirit of full cooperation. The government official, however, served notice that if local authorities did not attempt to enforce the government law, "it would be the duty of the federal authorities to bring to the attention of the law-abiding citizens of such communities the failure or dereliction of local authorities to assume responsibilities under the new law."

SOPHS PLAY GOOD GAME

Team from Local High School Holds Scottdale to 7-0 Score.

In its first game of the season the sophomore football team of the Connelville high school with the aid of the Scottdale high school yesterday at Scottdale the Connelville players made an excellent showing, holding their heavier opponents to a 7-0 score. Although the Connelville boys went to the Mill Town to play the second high team of that place, they found themselves, they said, lined up against some of the first squad players and, poorly equipped and unpracticed though they were, played a great game, considering the odds.

Scottdale scored a touchdown in the early part of the first quarter but the locals buckled down and held them for the remaining three. Every man on the sophomore team played hard and fought all the way. If the variety, with its weight and experience, shows half the fight their younger brothers did they will come back Saturday evening from the game at Scottdale with the bacon, the sophs believe. The sophomores will get a return game from Scottdale in the near future and with more time for practice expect to wallop them.

SPIKE THE FLU'S GUNS NOW IS THE BEST OF ADVICE

Don't Wait Till Winter Comes With a Return of the Epidemic

Where did influenza come from? Is it an old or a new foe to man? Is it breathed in from the air or drawn from human victims?

Who can answer these and other questions so gassed by an epidemic that gripped multitudes of Americans last winter at the cost of tens of thousands of lives? Wiseacres try to answer them and see how they differ—especially the doctors.

But with another winter around the corner the vital question this: Has any system power to ward off the "flu" if it comes? On the answer may hang countless human lives.

Ever since this epidemic began last winter these columns have carried statements signed by well-known physicians who, systems were rebuilt after weeks and months of suffering by the use of Nerv-Worth. Influenza is a vicious wrecker of the nerves, the stomach, the bowels, the liver and other vital parts of the system. Upon these are centered influenza's worst after-effects. Nerv-Worth drives out these after-effects by rebuilding the organs in which they chiefly have their seat.

And what it did last winter and afterwards in rebuilding disabled organs it can and will do now to fortify them against influenza's attacks. Nerv-Worth, therefore, is a sure defense.

Begin to take Nerv-Worth now. Nip the very firstlings of influenza in the bud. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Fortify your system by taking Nerv-Worth right along for weeks. Your forethought will not be lost even if the epidemic does not return, for Nerv-Worth steadies and strengthens the nerves, adds flesh, aids digestion, regulates the bowels, restores restful sleep, banishes sick and nervous headache and other aches and pains, builds up run-down systems, and this is a great work to do for ailing humans, influenza or no influenza.

The Connelville Drug Co., Connelville, and the Broadway Drug Co., Scottdale, sell Nerv-Worth.

Doctor Tells How to Detect Harmful Effects of Tobacco

Try These SIMPLE TESTS

New York Doctor Connor formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital, says "Many men who smoke, chew or sniff tobacco and who are seemingly healthy are suffering from progressive organic ailments. Thousands of them would never have been afflicted had it not been for the use of tobacco and thousands would soon get well if they would only stop the use of tobacco. The chief habit forming principle of tobacco is nicotine, a deadly poison which, when absorbed by the system slowly affects the nerves, membranes, tissues and vital organs of the body. The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances. One will be afflicted with general debility others with catarrh of the throat, indigestion, constipation, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will power, mental confusion and others may suffer from heart disease, bronchitis, trouble, hardening of arteries, tuberculosis, blindness or even cancer, the common affliction known as tobacco heart. If you use tobacco in any form you can easily detect the harmful effects by making the following simple tests. Read aloud the full page from a book. If in the course of reading your voice becomes hoarse and husky and you must frequently clear your throat the chances are that your throat is affected by catarrh and it may be the beginning of more serious trouble. Next in the morning before taking your usual smoke walk up three flights of stairs at a regular pace then

THE LIMIT OF ELECTION CORRUPTION IN FAYETTE COUNTY.

At the recent registration in Connelville and Uniontown it was shown that there were about three Republican voters to one Democratic. The county as a whole is normally Republican by a big majority. The results at the election next Tuesday should show practically the same proportions. But they will not if the Republicans go to sleep on the job and allow the New Freedomists to put one over on them by a similar combination of devices, theft, co-workers in the cause used so effectively in George Nos. 2 and 4.

It is known that the county and local Democratic leaders and leaders are intensely active, but working secretly and under cover. It is also known that the local forces are well supplied with all the munitions in the use of which they have shown themselves to be so skilled. They realize the desperate situation in which their party is placed. Undeterred by the exposure of crookedness in the George Nos. 2 and 4, and well aware of the ease with which they have pulled off even worse stunts in the Sixth and other wards in Connelville, they are laying their plans for hoodwinking Republicans by the wholesale.

In the execution of these plans the barefooters are relying upon making use of Republicans, knowing full well that there were not enough Democrats registered to carry a single ward in Connelville on a strict party vote. The schemes that will be employed throughout the county are without limit in number. They will range all the way from straight out offers to buy votes, services or influence to milder forms of seduction. There will be promises of "jobs," tearful pleadings for "complimentary" votes, offers of all sorts for "trading" votes, every conceivable deception to get voters to "split the ticket," suppers, obsequies and other functions and artifices will be employed all for the self purpose of winning Republicans away from their straight ticket.

It will be only by the employment of these methods and others by which the will of the voters has not been permitted to be expressed by the ballot that they can, that it will be possible for Connelville and Uniontown to register anything less than decisive majorities like those shown by the registrations of the county to show the true Republican strength.

While individual Republicans throughout the county are keeping on their guard against the allurement that are being placed before them, the citizens generally are fast coming to the determination that the last crooked election has been held in Connelville or Fayette county. They are demanding that the election of next Tuesday be straight and that an honest count be made. This should be assured even if it is necessary to have overseers appointed in every precinct. The upheaval of election corruption in George township must mark the limit of that kind of business.

If the Internal Revenue Department's enforcement of the prohibition law is as "zealous" as they profess of the Department of Justice to curb the profiteers and reduce the cost of living, have been "zealous" in the "liberally" inclined citizenry have no fear that they will not be able to quench his thirst in time of need.

With Washington asserting one day that "the war is over," and the next solemnly declaring "the war is still a fact," the country at large continues to enjoy that delightful state of uncertainty which has prevailed ever since we were "kept out of war."

What distress this is in Fayette county circles over the failure to lift the ban in time to come to the rescue of the election "martys."

There is one important detail that has been overlooked in connection with the Halloween celebration. No place has been assigned in the parade to the Phantom Chasers, or prize offered for the most ghostly phantom.

With $10,000,000 fixed as the amount to be raised for next year's campaign, the Democrats are determined to keep faith with the people in the matter of keeping up the cost of living.

Congress was consistent in its attitude on prohibition enforcement even if the President was not.

The lid is on, with Congress sitting tight.

Time to Meet the Situation Face to Face

In his testimony before the Senate Committee which is investigating the so-called steel strike Joseph Margolis acknowledged himself to be the attorney for the I. W. W. disavowed his belief in God, declared government "unnecessary," and also frankly admitted that an attempt is being made to organize "an industrial rather than a political Soviet in this country," with Pittsburgh as the headquarters of all the radical groups. Taking the testimony of this self-confessed "Syndicalist anarchist" as a text, the public department of the Catholic Charities drive, just closed in Connelville and all the parishes of the Pittsburgh diocese, has issued a statement which all thoughtful citizens who, forgetting all differences of religious doctrines and beliefs, in their common concern for the future of our country, should read with painstaking care. The statement follows:

"In this enlightened Twentieth Century following a world war in which 200,000 brave American boys were martyrs to the cause of Liberty, Democracy and the American Government, a witness expressed these views before a committee of the United States Senate: 'He and others without belief in Almighty God, and opposed to government, are organizing.'"

"The news shocked sensible people in Western Pennsylvania because they realized for the first time that this district is the fountain head for propaganda of the brand which would revolutionize modern civilization, bridge ambition, still initiative, license lawlessness and prevent that competition which spurs men on by energy, industry, thrift, integrity, ability and education to surmount the obstacles of life."

"The law for the anarchist without God or a guiding conscience, without law and without government, would be the same for decency and for degeneracy. The opinions of ungoverned men would be substituted for the 10 commandments of God, which are the fundamental principles of the laws of our country."

"Imagine the novelty of a situation in Western Pennsylvania where there is no authority under heaven in municipalities, in the home, the mill, the office or factory. Some anarchist who couldn't work would share in the profits of his industrial neighbor."

"In this Twentieth Century when men's minds are wandering to such ridiculous extremes that the laws of God and country will not satisfy, is it not time that the serious, sober-minded, conservative, patriotic Americans become aroused for the protection of their homes and for the peace and happiness of their children? When ignorant minds fed by the propaganda of the peasant abroad by agitators here in your land of Liberty, is it not time for intelligent forces in the community to apply the antidote, and let them see government of the agitator, for the agitator and by the agitator?"

"When official documents in the Senate prove the presence of this very evil among the working forces in this big industrial empire, is it not time for all the people to join forces and meet the situation face to face?"

Students' Halloween Social.

ALVERTON, Oct. 26—Students of the East Huntingdon high school joined in a Halloween social that proved to be one of the most interesting events of the season here. In addition to all the fun that goes with a gathering of this character there was a royal feast. The seniors brought apples and cider, the juniors ginger bread, the sophomores candy and the freshmen pumpkins. The affair began early in the evening and lasted until the last car for out of town.

WHEN THE OTHER FELLOW'S BUSY.

When the other fellow's busy, write your hand and pass along. Do not ask him then to listen to your little tale of wrong. Do not talk about the weather or the latest bit of news. Shout a glad good morning to him, but don't stop to air your views.

When the other fellow's busy with the work he has to do, Don't imagine that he's eager to hear the tale that from you. He won't thank you for your visit, but he'll list you with the fools. And he'll wish he'd never met you if you make him drop his tools.

Big Lot of Hay Fever Jokes

But Kentucky Man Says—"People Who Belong to Hay Fever Colony are Kidding Themselves."

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy Was Given a Chance.

"Yes, there's a real NINETY-NINE per cent effective remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city.

"But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Mentholized Arcline and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will relieve a real headache to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and snuff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show up is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Better Class of Pharmacists" who dispense Mentholized Arcline say it will greatly modify any attack even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin.

Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a pint.

You can have nerves of steel, firm step, new courage and keep mind by putting your blood and nerves in first-class shape with mighty Bio-Feren, a new discovery, inexpensive and efficient.

Men and women who get up so tired in the morning that they have to drag themselves to their daily labor with just a few days' rest with clear mind, definite purpose and loads of ambition. All you have to do is to take two Bio-Feren tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—7 a day for 7 days—then reduce to one after each meal until all are gone.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't doubled, if your mind isn't keener and eyes brighter, if you don't feel twice as ambitious as before, any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely. Bio-Feren is without doubt the greatest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—set many packages.

for the most comic, best Uncle Sam, $2.50; best Indian, $2.50.

Asthma Is Dangerous

Folly To Misregard Its Warning.

Asthma is not only a disagreeable affliction but a dangerous one. The constant difficulty breathing, the choked up air passages, the struggle for air, the loss of rest, combine to force a great strain on the nervous system and heart—often too great a strain to stand. It is the worst of folly to neglect such a condition or to continually treat with ordinary narcotic medicines, drugs, inhalers, smokes, or douches which merely give temporary relief from the choking paroxysms and do not relieve or correct the real cause of the trouble. Instead get from A. A. Clarke or any druggist a small bottle of Oxidase (essential oil) tablets and take one at short intervals whenever distress is felt and one on going to bed. Instant relief is usually felt and in addition the effect of consistent treatment is to gradually bring about a greatly improved health condition as the symptoms of Asthma disappear forever. Oxidase is the successful prescription of a Worcester, Mass. physician and its treatment of Asthma, even in the very worst forms has probably never been excelled. A. A. Clarke sells it and patients find it a safe pleasant and inexpensive treatment to use.—Adv.

Plot to Kidnap Edsel.
TOLEDO, Ohio, Oct. 28.—Statements of a private detective that he had discovered a plot to kidnap Edsel Ford, son of Henry Ford, and hold him for $200,000 ransom led to the arrest of four men.

Carry Loot Away in Trucks.
NEW CASTLE, Oct. 28.—Thieves backed up a motor truck to the general store and auto repair shop of Raub Brothers at Edinburg, a little town near here, last night and escaped with $2,000 worth of plunder.

WIFE TELLS HOW THEY THOUGHT HE COULD NOT LIVE

Testifies That Plant Juice Saved Her Husband from the Grave.

"No one can realize how happy I am since my husband was cured by Plant Juice," said Mrs. John Cook, whose husband was formerly one of the best known athletes in Pennsylvania, until stomach trouble sapped his health and strength. Mrs. Cook continued:

"We reside at 6206 Butler street, Pittsburgh, and any of the neighbors will recall how my husband suffered until he finally became so bad that they thought he could not live. This trouble lasted for seven years and he became badly discouraged. His appetite was very poor and he could not keep anything in his stomach—not even water.

"His heart was affected; he was chronically constipated and his liver was inactive.

"Finally, after we had read where Plant Juice had helped so many people in Pittsburgh that we knew that suffered with the same symptoms that he had, and my mother had told us of how she had been benefited by your medicine, he decided to try it.

"The very first dose he noticed that his stomach was better and his appetite began to improve, until now, he can eat any kind of food and it agrees with him. He told me that it has cured his trouble and the 'trembling' sensation is now gone and he feels good from morning until night.

"I cured his liver trouble and cleared up his complexion and since that time he has enjoyed perfect health. We owe our happiness to Plant Juice and are willing to tell anyone personally what we think of this wonderful medicine."

Plant Juice is sold in Connellsville at Roy Hetzel's Drug Store and the Connellsville Drug Co. Store.—Adv.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success. They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 10c and 25c a box.

Those who are weak, nervous and run-down especially need Chaseo-Vin. It restores the appetite, makes rich, red blood, and increases the strength and vitality.

The Chaseo-Vin formula is centuries old and is prescribed by the best physicians as much today as ever.

There are only two Chaseo-Vin agencies in Connellsville—C. Roy Hetzel, West Crawford avenue, and A. A. Clarke, 323 Pittsburg street.

Diamond Cut Diamond

By JANE BUNKER

Copyright by the Hobbs-Merrill Company

"The deuce!" cried Billy, jumping up and snatching his hat off the table as though he were about to run to the rescue. Then he turned as red as a beet and signaled me with his eyes and a couple of gestures, which she did not see. "Help me out, can't you? Make her ask me to go home with her." For he had the wit to see, before he'd let himself in with a word, that he couldn't force himself on a woman like Mrs. Delario without placing himself before both of us in the position of an officious pup and very likely getting a snub that would spoil his chances.

I played to his signal—and won a bushel of gratitude from both sides. "Won't you let Mr. Rivers go home with you and find out how Clacie is and come back and tell me?" I asked her artlessly; and to him, "You'll do that for me, won't you, Billy?"

"Oh, will you, Mr. Rivers?" she asked, in great relief, rising as she spoke and preparing to hurry off.

Billy's eyes were popping and his feet were almost dancing. I presented him with a frown—meant by her—that said: "Now, look out, young man, how you play your cards!"

"What a relief to have Mr. Rivers!" she cried with feeling, and took my hand. Then she affectionately kissed me—for the first time in her life.

I saw her and Billy to the elevator, pushing my hall door flat against the wall to keep it from blowing shut on me, and waited, idly waving a good-by and watching her till the car had sunk out of sight. I had just stepped into my hall again and laid my hand on the doorknob, when I heard a sharp imperative "Wait!"

I jumped and wheeled. A man stepped out from the stairs back of the elevator shaft. His face was concealed in a pulled-up collar and a pulled-down hat. With three quick strides he was within the doorway. He pushed me out of the way and seized and slammed the door on us. Then he carefully put up the chain-bolt. As he did it, he held up his free hand with a "Shh!"

No need of warning—I was paralyzed! It had taken him just four seconds to make me his prisoner.

CHAPTER XVII.

A Little Scheme.

I had been too completely stunned by the suddenness with which my imprisonment had been effected even to think who my visitor might be, and it was not until he turned from bolting the door and apologized feebly, "Pardon his intrusion, madame," that I recognized De Ravenot. And then he removed his hat and motioned me to precede him along the hall.

"Madame, I ask a thousand pardons," he began suavely. "Unfortunately—or rather, unforeseen circumstances, rendered his intrusion necessary and I feared if you closed the door—since you had had interview with your friend Madame Delario you might perhaps be tempted not to speak with me—and a delay to speak with me might spoil all our plans."

While he talked I felt my courage come back, and in a voice I felt was not obviously shaky, I replied: "Oh, certainly. I understand. I was expecting you."

"Expecting me?" He seemed surprised that I should be expecting him at that time and asked why, at the same time motioning me to take a chair by my study table and showing me he would sit in the other.

To gain time on my side, I went on: "I fear you worried about Clacie, when she did not come. I should have telephoned you, but my telephone seems to be out of order."

I had a malicious pleasure in reminding him that he was the one to suffer for it and a frown passed over his face, but was gone in an instant as he said: "It is of no consequence," and then plunged into the matter at hand.

"While I wait for the lift to pass down just now, I risk I recognize, the voice of Madame Delario. She is here a moment since, is she not?"

"Yes—she was here."

He paused as if in hopes that I would tell him what she had come for, but I had taken quick stock of the situation and decided to let him do all the talking.

"Zen she have probably told you that I have seen her last evening?"

"Yes—she mentioned it, I believe."

"Yes—she helps me to explain."

You see, I feel it necessary to have some words with her after she has talked with you and before she can you and communicate her ideas with you. Hence I am obliged to put you to some trouble—for which I ask one thousand pardons—in order that I accomplish it. Zerkore—I arrange it that I leave my daughter to entertain you and Mr. Rivers while I make a brief call on Madame Delario and see what she have to say for herself about zozo diamonds. And for this reason: When I see you last evening, I am in positive command of information that proves her to have zozo diamonds."

ITALIAN SCIENTIST ATTACKS SOUNDNESS OF LAW OF GRAVITATION

Contents Newton's Theory is Really
Only an Approximate Hypothesis.

ROME, Sunday, Oct. 26.—Newton's theory of gravitation has been attacked by Professor Maiorano who, speaking before a meeting of prominent scientists here today, declared the results of experiments he had performed upset the hitherto accepted laws of physics governing the motions of celestial bodies.

Newton's theory, while hitherto considered absolute, is only an approximate hypothesis, according to Professor Maiorano, who supports the assertion by showing that a ball of lead floating in mercury becomes slightly lighter.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"A LAW UNTO ITSELF"—Featuring Louise Glaum, the popular star, and an excellent comedy are being shown today. Tomorrow Evelyn Greely will be seen in "The Oakdale Affair," which tells the story of what is at first thought to be a combined jewel robbery and kidnapping. Old Jonas Prim discovers one evening that his daughter is missing and that her safe has been opened and all her jewels, together with a considerable amount of money, have been removed from the safe. The missing girl is discovered in a small village, nearly imprisoned with several tramps. Miss Greely is supported by a cast of screen players of prominence.

THE SOISSON.

"YANKEE DOODLE IN BERLIN"—Bigger even than Mack Sennett's recent success, "Mickey," with the beautiful Sennett bathing girls appearing in person, is a big attraction today.

Sennett set to work to achieve the high mark of his remarkable career as a satirist and laughmaker in a film production that should sweep Wilhelm off the serious pages of history as a monumental bluff. And here it is—"Yankee Doodle in Berlin"—five reels of hilarious fun, with the entire Keystone corps of comedians marshaled in on the production and to make the measure a heaping one, the famous Sennett Bathing Beauties, and Bothwell Browne, the greatest of all male actors of feminine roles, in the cast.

By special permission, the Sennett girls come from California to grace the stage as well as the screen that has so often refracted their refreshing youth, grace and perfection of figure, the dazzling, mermaids of the California studio will be seen in all their elaborate costuming, set off with brilliant lighting effects in a specially staged number preceding the showing of the film.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast
washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is aching; if what you eat sours and forms acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get things just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before eating more food.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from you: pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate, which is inexpensive and almost tasteless.

Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast.—Adv.

Singer Reported Killed.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—Rumors are circulating in Paris that Theodor Schliapine, the noted Russian Opera singer, has been killed by the Bolsheviks who feared that the basso, taken ill while singing at the opera in Moscow, was suffering from the plague. Many of the Russian colony in Paris, however, doubt the report, considering it as very unlikely that the Bolshevik would have killed Schliapine who packed the opera houses at Moscow and Petrograd whenever he sang.
